City Council Hires Supt. Public Works

With many references to the usefulness and effectiveness of a city charter Tuesday night, all city councilmen, with the exception of Robert Weems, voted in a permanent city engineer for the first time in Cameron history.

W. D. Bigbee, a local man with years of experience in private and governmental engineering, was present at the meeting by request of councilmen, agreeing to accept the position on the pre-arranged salary of $3,600 a year. Bigbee's classification, councilmen explained, would be that of Superintendent of Public Works, since his job will include many things other than engineering. His duties will include the paper and field work necessary, in a supervisory capacity in the field, on any project or everyday problem referred to him by any councilman.

The only objection raised was by Weems, loyal to the point of losing council favors to Thomas Kelly, city engineer for the past several years. He asked councilmen how they were going to raise the money for another city employee, pointing out that in the past every time he asked for additional funds for repair of streets the answer was always the same, "no funds".

Grady Stidham stated that one way to take care of Bigbee's salary would be to disburse with the services of Newt Johnson, who has acted as foreman of the city street crew for the past 34 years. He said that although he was against letting anyone go. It was his personal idea that personnel should not be kept if not needed and Bigbee would assume the responsibilities now shouldered by Johnson.

Weems retorted, "Well, in that case we might as well let you go, too. He'd also take over your responsibilities."

Councilmen talked at length about the problem and decided to leave everything in its status quo position until actual personnel needs can be ascertained.

Most of the council, all apparently in a far from sunny mood and inclined to take every remark by every other councilman as a personal affront, agreed that Cameron is 50 years behind the times in engineering and deemed a permanent employee more feasible and practical than hiring an engineer for their individual projects, as they have done in the past.

Milton Schiller was the first to question the strictly engineering capacity of Bigbee, pointed to each councilman and naming his first thought his business, and explained that everyone on the council is too busy with his private enterprise to spend too much time following through on city policy set up by the council.

He named many small projects that are still in the fire merely because of lack of follow through. It was his suggestion that any problem discussed by the council and solved, be turned over to Bigbee for disposal. Councilmen agreed to this suggestion, as did Bigbee, when he was called back into the meeting for an affirmation of his being hired.

It was decided that all of the engineering tools of the trade will be ordered by the City Secretary, Naomi Nedham, immediately, and Bigbee will start to work upon its arrival.

The first project on his agenda will be to perform the engineering plans for the water and sewer facility installation in the Culpeper addition, newly annexed to the city. City fathers stated that if this project is completed by him it will more than pay his first year's salary.

The meeting started out in an unsatisfactory atmosphere with council members wrangling about whether or not to strike Kelly's comments at the last meeting from the record.

Mayor O. B. Horstmann said that Kelly had requested they be included on the minutes, with Weems backing him up that they

School Board Discusses Many Vital Issues at Thursday Meet

New personnel, school equipment, athletic policies and a possible bond issue composed the agenda for the local school board at their regular meeting this week.

One of the largest and most important possible projects for the near future to be discussed by the board members was the proposed erection of an entire new school plant at the O. J. Thomas school grounds. Dr. Clifford Swift, president of the board, was authorized to contact Joe Brandenburger of Houston to act as fiscal agent for the school if the project is pursued.

It was also decided that a committee of three, composed of Leo Fuchs, Max Howard, and H. B. Pressley, should make arrangements for a loan of $25,000 to be paid back at $5,000 from the most reasonable source, to take care of payment of the new Industrial Arts Building, equipment for that and the Vocational Agriculture Department and the paving of the streets in front of the school.

After some discussion board members elected to include this amount in the possible bond election, should it be held.

Fuchs, head of the Athletic Committee, reported on the policy sheet for Football Ticket Sales which was outlined at an earlier meeting by Superintendent W. T. Hanes. Upon his suggestion the board adopted the policy which includes plans for a full report on football ticket sales following each game, with the figures to be included in the annual audit and a full financial report to be published.

Milam Listed as Four - Star County By Recent Tax Survey

Local Chamber of Commerce officials announced Tuesday that Milam County has been listed as a four star county according to a tax survey for the fiscal year ending Dec. 31, 1954.

The report, compiled by the East Texas Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the local C of C, was based on several factors with the highest classification any county could receive being a six star county.

A summary of the purpose for which stars were awarded to Milam County include:

All funds ended the year with a cash balance.

The 1954 operating fund tax rate not above state average of $0.75. Milam County's 1954 operating fund tax rate is $0.675.

Ratio of net debt of 1954 county assessed valuation not above State ed at the conclusion of the football season each year.

The board heartily accepted the plan of action suggesting that Hanes continue to think upon the athletic program and write a list of policies concerning the program which can be put into effect next year.

Following the report Hanes told the board that out of the 426 reserved seats available 129 complimentary tickets, to local teachers, coaches and administrators of visiting teams schools, had been given. 249 tickets have already been sold, leaving a total of 48 on hand, with approximately $1120.50 allocated.

It was decided not to work out ready netted from the ticket sales plans for sidewalks in front of the Ben Milam school or to put up a fence at the north side of the stadium at this time, due to the lack of funds.

Two new teachers were approved for the O. J. Thomas schools, Mrs. Jerry Whiteside and Nathaniel Gray.

Board members also issued a strong reprimand to caretaker Whitesides at the O. J. Thomas school, with C. L. Sadberry, principal of the school authorized to issue an ultimatum to the caretaker that he will be placed upon a trial basis for one month and if the situation is not relieved and improved will then be dismissed.

One new caretaker was hired for the Yoe school grounds, W. M. Buchanan, who will assist the present employees.

Rumors Indicate Another Deep Test Near Milam

Some speculation continues over the Texas Sulphur Company's deep Milam County wildcat, plugged on August 17 with the opinion that the well actually had been temporarily abandoned. Rumors also continued that Texas Gulf soon would start another test near Milam.

Forms filed with the Railroad Commission indicate the only cement plug in the hole is from 9,650 - 900 feet. Seven - inch casing was set at 9,867 feet, and whether any of this was cut or pulled was not definite. If there is no other cement plug, and a bull plug is set, reentry would be simple, but would require filing of a new Form 1.

Formation records filed with the commission show lime, 5,911 - 6,066 feet, sand stone to 6,120 feet, lime to 6,163 feet, hard shale to 6,191 feet, sandy lime 6,919 - 8,581 feet, shale to 8,995 feet, lime 8,995 - 9,093 feet, sandy shale, 9,093 - 709 feet, shale 9,709 - 11,143 feet, hard shale 11,143 - 12,208, quartzite 12,208 - 12,670 feet.

Milam Man Chairman Prison Board's Rodeo Committee

The original Texas Prison Rodeo, which has been called "The Wildest Show on Earth", has gotten a little wilder and faster each succeeding year. The 1955 version, being staged here each Sunday in October, promises to live up to expectations as the wildest and fastest outdoor sports event on record.

Contingent upon acceptance by Governor Allen Shivers from his headquarters in Austin, Chairman H. H. Coffield of the Prison Board's Rodeo Committee, who extended the invitation, advised prison management that October 2nd would officially be "Governor's Day" at the Rodeo.

Coffield revealed that members of the State Legislature and ranking state officials have been invited to attend opening day ceremonies as guests of the Prison Board. It is expected that many of the state's solons and officials will attend.

Negro Blasting May Become Unsolved Crime

Emmett Kellow, 70, and his wife retired Sunday night without a care in the world and so far as they knew, not an enemy, only to be rudely awakened at 10:55 p.m. by a blast which shook the foundation of their modest little home at 703 W. 12th.

No possible reason for the display of violence could be explained by the negro occupant.

Dust filled the house and was thought by the couple to be smoke when they were awakened, causing them to scurry around in anticipation of finding the house a fire. They knew there had been a blast but in their sub-conscious state than something having fallen.

The northwest corner of the reception room was found to be the spot blasted by the apparent prankster. Inside the living room a trunk which had been locked was blown open by the blast and the baseboard on the rear wall was ripped completely away from the wall.

A hole, two feet across and a foot deep was blown in the garden outside the window and the window, of course, was shattered.

The possibility of a "misaken address" was being investigated Monday. Sideline dopsters figured that it was the work of a prankster with homicidal inclinations. For a motive the idea that gambling might be at the root of the blast was later discounted as "just a guess."

October Draft Calls For 534 Texans

A state draft call for 534 men for October was announced Friday by Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director.

The quota, the state's share of a national call for 10,000 men, is two less than the September quota and 12 less than the August quota. Calls have ranged between 500 and 550 a month during most of 1955.

Local board quotas for the October induction into the army will be mailed from state Selective Service headquarters on Sept. 7.

There will be no physical - mental examinations of men for military service through the draft boards in October, except in isolated cases, General Wakefield said.

With the exception of volunteers and possible delinquents, the October induction call will be filled only with men who on October 1 are 21 years of age or older, General Wakefield said.

Directions to induct only the older age groups came from the national director of Selective Service, Major General Lewis B. Hershey, in conformity with the law.

These instructions were received with the October quota.

Buckholts, District 10-B Opens Season With Hutto Friday Night

A veteran six - man football team will form the 1955 Buckholts club in District 10 - B and make its bid for the district title.

Although the Badgers from Buckholts will be a veteran team this year, Coach Louis DeWald is not counting on breaking into the throne room this year. He thinks the Copperas Cove club, region champions last year, will keep their lease on the throne room.

The Badgers, who open against the Hutto Hippos Thursday night here, will have a letterman in every position, and additional stalwarts to back up the starters.

Seven returning lettermen from last year's squad will give the Badgers the foundation for a good club this year, and DeWald says varsity is a pretty fast club.

In the quarterback slot is Johnny Jungman, one of two seniors among his vets. Jungmann weighs only 123 pounds, but he is cool and handles the team well. He is a two year letterman. At wingback is James Tate, 140 - pound letterman and a junior. Glen Hutka and Dwayne Orsag round out the varsity backs. Hutka weighs 145 pounds and Orsag 155. Both are lettermen and both are juniors.

The ends include Senior Milton Daniels, 140 - pound veteran, and Albert Abel, 157 - pound two year letterman. At center is Joe Dean Zajicek, the heaviest man on the varsity. He weighs 160 pounds and is a senior letterman.

DeWald rates the district about equal when you take Copperas Cove aside.

The Badgers have an eight game schedule ahead of them - four at home and four on the road.

The Buckholts schedule: Sept. 15 Hutto at Buckholts Sept. 22 Iredell at Buckholts Sept. 29 Turnersville at Buckholts

Oct. 6 Sharp at Buckholts x Oct. 13 Pearl at Buckholts x Oct. 20 Open

Nov. 10 Jarrell at Jarrell x x - Denotes District 10 - B games

Yoemen Come From Behind To Take Waco Trojans, 14-6 Count

The fourth quarter of the Yoemen-Trojan game Friday night was the pay off period. After the Trojans had stormed a 40 yard march to cross the Yoemen goal line midway the last period, the Yoemen came from behind to rack up two tallies to nip the University of Waco in their first gridiron encounter of the 1955 season by a score of 14-6.

The first half found both teams knocking at each others goal posts but fumbles and penalties soon bogged down the drives.

The Trojans tallied first with a near 40 yard drive going over the Yoemen 1 yard line

This drive was spearheaded by Raymond Kaluza and George Jurcek, halfbacks with Duty calling the plays. Quarterback Duty going over for the score.

The Yoemen came right back with a 70 yard march reaching pay-dirt in ten plays. Thompson, Duncan and Williams doing most of the tricks behind the fine Yoemen line charged down field with Duncan's drive over left tackle for the initial Yoemen score. Buddy Thompson added the extra point.

But, that wasn't all for the Yoemen. A minute and a half later, Buck Barr, nifty Yoemen end who gave the Trojans trouble all night, stole one of Duty's passes into the flat and scampered 46 yards for the last touchdown. Thompson again added the conversion.

The Yoemen line with Tom Collin at center, Clyde Wallace and Monroe Bayer at tackles, Paul Hoelscher and Laddie Dohnalik at Guards paved the way for the Yoe drives that netted over 200 yards from scrimmage to 175 for the Trojans. The Trojans led in first downs 13 to 9.

Clifford Angell and Duncan, both suffering from crippled ankles, played most of the game.

Coach Jackson said he was proud of his boys and coming from behind to take the Trojans was most encouraging to him. He said the injuries slowed the team down some but thought the boys would probably be off the injured list for the coming Friday night with the Lampasas Badgers here on the Yoemen field.

Over 200 Attend Marlow Homcoming Sunday, September 4

Over 200 community residents and former residents of the Marlow Community were present at the Cemetery Association Homecoming Sunday.

Following the morning church services dinner was spread on the ground, after which the afternoon's program was held.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Woods, with Mr. Woods, a former teacher in Marlow for many years, as the guest speaker. He reminisced at length about his days there as a teacher with references to Genesis pertaining to the beginning of things. He emphasized the necessity of building the correct, strong foundation of a life and told how he and his wife felt they had some part in forming the foundation of many of the lives in Marlow.

The welcoming address was given by Morris Coward, the association president, who recognized all former residents.

During the business session Mrs. George Jones was reelected as director with James Coward replacing Max McClaren who was made a first alternate.

It was decided that the cemetery will be covered in peat gravel to eliminate a caretaker during the year, with a committee composed of Morris Coward, Hubert McClaren, vice president, and Miss Lenora Bickett, secretary elected to meet Friday to make final arrangements. They requested anyone having any objections to the pursuance of the project to contact them prior to the meeting.

It was also decided that the date of the homecoming next year will be changed, so that it will not be in conflict with other homecomings in this area or a church revival.

President Issues Proclamation For Constitution Week

A PROCLAMATION

"We the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common Defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION for the United States of America."

On September 17, 1787, the delegates to the Federal Convention in Philadelphia met for the last time and approved these familiar words now enshrined not only in our Nation's basic Instrument of Government but also in the hearts of our citizenry. Led by the President of the Convention, George Washington, the great majority of the delegates signed the newly drafted constitution, and on the following day their Secretary set off for New York by stage coach to deliver the engrossed document to the United States in Congress there assembled. Within a week the proposed Constitution had been printed and circulated in both Pennsylvania and New York, and the great principles by which our country still is governed had been dispatched or carried home by delegates from other States as well. On September 28, 1787, the Congress resolved to transmit the draft text officially to the States of the Confederation for action.

It is fitting that we, whose entire lives have been protected by the fruits of the Convention's deliberations, should pause in our several occupations to study the course of events by which our Constitution came into being, the great debate which ensued before our Federal Government became established, and the internal stresses and the assaults from without which we as a Nation have met successfully, with God's help, within the framework established by our forebears one hundred and sixty-eight years ago.

Now, Therefore, I, Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States of America, acting accord with senate Concurrent Resolution 40, agreed to on July 26, 1955, do hereby designate as Constitution Week the period beginning September 17, 1955, and ending September 23, 1955; and I invite the people of the United States to observe that week with appropriate ceremonies in their schools and churches, and in other suitable places. Let us give thanks for the wisdom of those statesmen of 1787 who labored "to decide the fate of republican government" and their successors throughout our country's history who contributed to making our Constitution a living thing, a great taproot to feed and support the growth of our republic.

Central Texas Soil Conservation Report Lists Improvements

Belton

A good job of range improvement is being carried out by L. A. Kenan, cooperator in the North Nolanville Community. Kenan cleared approximately 100 acres of brush last year and has rested this pasture all year except for his goats. Goats are being used to keep down re-growth of his brush. All of his native grasses are doing good and making a good seed crop. Some areas that were cleared may have to be reseeded, out Kenan plans to give his grasses an opportunity to show up after clearing, before he does any re-seeding.

It has been proven in the past that if a 15 percent cover exists of native grasses, proper management will develop a cover. If less than 15 percent good grasses exist, reseeding will probably be necessary to develop a cover in a reasonable length of time. Kenan has seeded some King Ranch blue-stem and this will probably be the grass he will use if reseeding is necessary.

Temple

King Ranch blue-stem is making extra good growth on the Lillian Rankin farm near Pendleton. William Berry, operator of the farm, seeded the grass on oat land last April. The oats were plowed out with a one way plow and the land was smoothed up with a tandem disc. The seed were planted with a cotton planter in rows about 12 inches apart. Enough clover has been made by the grass to give good protection for a diversion terrace now being constructed below the grassed area.

More drainage area for a pond is being had by constructing a diversion terrace below permanent pasture area on J. Roy Phillips' farm north east of Troy. With plenty of water at all times in his pasture, Mr. Phillips plans to intensify the improvement of his pasture with seeding grasses, mowing weeds, proper use, and rotation grazing. Mr. Phillips is being assisted in the planning and application of these conservation measures by the Soil Conservation Service from Temple.

Cameron

"Hubam clover, that deep rooted as much as any legume in the blacklands of this area. Its capacity to furnish good cover, condition the subsoil and serve as an overall soil improving crop is in this area. For this reason nearly every farmer in the blacklands will plant some of his crop land in hubam clover this fall.

Rosebud

"Hubam clover, that deep rooted legume that stores water and adds organic matter to the soil is worth $30.00 an acre just for soil improvement", says Charlie Skupin, who farms 4 miles south west of Rosebud.

Charlie has been a District Co-operator since 1947 during which time all the cropland has been covered three times with hubam. He seeds from one-third to one-half of the cropland to hubam each year.

"A $10.00 an acre return on the succeeding cash crop for three years has been my experience from hubam on this blackland farm," he said.

The clover is seeded in the fall. Two hundred pounds of 45 percent superphosphate is applied at planting. The clover is clipped, which aids in a more uniform seed set. "Clipping the tops of the clover about knee high stimulates seed production; however, clipping too close and taking hay proved to be detrimental," he said. One plot that was clipped made 1,000 pounds seed per acre. The entire farm averaged better than 500 pounds of seed per acre.

Cotton, corn, feed crops, oats, and hubam clover are the crops produced. Livestock graze on permanent and temporary pasture of Bermuda grass, clovers and oats.

This is the best corn crop that was ever made on this farm was the statement of Ervin Wilberg, farmer and district cooperator five miles west of Lott.

The farm is predominately mixed land, but corn did all right. A forty bushel average for the entire farm and up to fifty bushels per acre was harvested this year.

Waterways, terraces, contour cultivation, hubam clover, winter peas, vetch and crop residue management are coordinated on the crop land. Phosphate and ferti-

USDA to Offer "Distress" Loan to Grain Producers

The Agriculture Department announced this week it will offer special "distress" price support loans to grain sorghum growers special "distress" price support unable to find approved storage facilities to harvest time.

The 90-day loans will be made in areas where grain sorghums can be safely stored on the ground or in temporary buildings during the fall. Eligible areas will be designated by state agricultural stabilization committees, the department said.

Stalk Destruction Helps Remedy Boll Weevil, Pink Bollworm Infestation

Boll weevils and pink bollworms, insect dollar grabbers of the cotton fields, are plentiful in most areas of Texas. The showery weather reduced the effectiveness of control measures and enabled the insects to increase numbers.

To stop a further increase, Extension Entomologist F. M. Fuller says farmers should destroy all cotton stalks immediately after the harvesting job is completed. He recommends that a shredder type stalk cutter be used and then followed with a plowing job which will get all plant material covered deeply. The big objective is to destroy the insects' food supply and thus force them into winter hibernation in a weakened condition.

Cotton and corn are the chief crops grown in a rotation with oats and hubam clover. The oats and clover are used for temporary pasture

GRAIN STORAGE

To date some 11,000,000 lbs. of maize has been stored by Milam county farmers at the Southland Cotton Oil Company's storage bends, in which the local Farm Bureau helped in getting this storage location.

Herbert Foehr, who operates the Eddie Weise farm located in the Detmold community about eight miles north of Thorndale, produced 522 pounds of snapped cotton more per acre on land where fertilizer winter peas had been turned under for soil improvement than on similar land where cotton did not follow a legume cover crop.

The winter peas were fertilized at the rate of 200 pounds of 20 percent phosphate fertilizer per acre.

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher discusses tiredness this week, another subject he has only a theoretical knowledge of.

Dear Editor:

I read in a farm magazine the other night, one of these magazine edited mostly by city people whose aim is to convince a farmer he can ride a tractor all day and never loose the crease in his trousers, where equipment manufacturers are working on ideas to take the fatigue out of farming.

I think this is fine, and my only regret is that they haven't been able to hit on any yet.

Now I know that farming isn't as tiring as it was 50 years ago, or at least that's what they say, but just from observation I've noticed that a man doesn't fall asleep any faster at night after he's plowed four acres with a walking plow than he does after he's plowed 40 acres with a tractor.

When equipment makers say they are taking the fatigue out of farming, they mean actually they're increasing the amount of work a man can do in a day, with the amount of fatigue remaining constant. I ain't never seen a farm yet that couldn't take lal the energy out of a man he has.

I'll admit it takes more energy to chop 40 acres by hand than it does to plow 40 acres with a tractor, but I'm not sure chopping hours takes up any more energy than plowing that long, although I'm like most farmers and the very time any crop needs any hand labor is the same time it needs the more experienced care of a tractor, with me on the tractor, umbrella up.

As a matter of fact, I think there is a lot of misunderstanding over the place of the machine in life today. A machine enables a man to do a lot more work, but if machinery has cut down on the amount of fatigue, I haven't seen it. Leastwise, everybody seems about as tired as he ever was. The only way I know how to take the fatigue out of farming is to rent your land out and move to town.

However you take town jobs, Machines have taken over a lot of the work load in all kinds of white - collar jobs, from banking to jerking soda to making change with an automatic cash register, but nearly every worker I know in town almost invariably comes home dog - tired every day.

Machines may be simply outsmarting you, getting us to turn out more work with the same amount of fatigue. That is, they may be outsmarting you, but not me. When I find myself working harder for a machine than it works for me, I drain its radiator and let it stand where it stalled.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Miss Nancy Lou Harrell Becomes Bride of Mr. Billy Lee Nelson

Miss Nancy Lou Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lewis Harrell, became the bride of Billy Lee Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel C. Heaberlin, Saturday evening at eight o'clock in an impressive candlelight ceremony in the sanctuary of the First Methodist Church at Gladewater.

The Reverend Compton Riley, pastor of the First Methodist church, Galveston, read the marriage vows before a background of burning tapers in tall candelabra entwined with smilax. Floor baskets held white roses and in each window of the church were four white tapers and white roses in low containers. The pews were marked with white tapers and roses.

Mrs. H. L. McKaig, organist, presented the preprogram of traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Wilson Godfrey, soloist, who sang "Serenade", "One Alone", and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's father was born and raised in Cameron and is the son of the late Lola Lewis Harrell and Sam Harrell. Mrs. Harrell is the former Connie Collier who lived in Cameron for many years.

Mr. Harrell gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white imported silk taffeta. The bodice was fashioned with a wide decollete neckline, outlined by appliques of Handrun Alencon lace in a flower and petal motif intricately re-embroidered in seed and long sleeves that tapered to petal points over her hands. Tiny covered buttons extended down the back of the tightly moulded bodice. The extremely bouffant taffeta skirt, enhanced by a garland of the lace encircling the skirt, swept to a wide fan shape chapel length train. Her veil of imported French silk illusion extended in misty tiers beyond her fingertips from a pointed bonnet fashioned of the Alencon lace encrusted with seed pearls and iridescent paillettes. Her bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and French tulie.

Mrs. Robert Austin Powell, of Lubbock, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of white sheer silk, fashioned with a wide square shape neckline and brief shirred sleeves, complimented by white wrist length gloves. The waistline was marked by a wide set-in midriff, outlined by a narrow self cord. The full skirt was waist length. She wore red velvet bow clips and matching pumps. The bride's attendant carried ballerina bouquets of red roses from which cascaded red satin ribbons tied with tiny red rosebuds.

Miss Sharon Hudnall, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Her dress was white accented by a red bow in the back. Candelighters were Jack Harrell II, brother of the bride, and James Heaberlin, brother of the groom.

The groom's brother-in-law, Jack Hudnall, of Tyler, served as best man.

Groomsmen were Robert Gary, Jerry Cladwell, Hal Long, and Billy Ray Johnston, all of Gladewater; Robert Powell, of Lubbock, and Billy Phillips, of Grand Prairie.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Harrell were hosts at a reception at their home. The bride's table was covered with an imported white organza cloth. Appointments were of silver and the four tiered wedding cake was decorated with white roses. Arrangements of white roses were used throughout the house with the exception of the den where there was a mantle arrangement of white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Harrell's sisters, Mrs. Herman S. Wheeler, of Paintsville, Ky., and Mrs. Edwin Day, of Bellaire, presided at the bride's table with Mrs. O. B. Hardin, of Cameron, and Mrs. Beulah Burns of Austin.

Following a wedding trip to Miami, Florida and Nassau, the couple will make their home at Lubbock, where the groom will study at Texas Technological College.

The bride is a graduate of Gladewater High School; Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., and the Baylor Technology, Dallas.

The groom graduated from Gladewater High School; Kilgore College, Kilgore, and attended Southern Methodist University.

Uranium "Cure" Is Hoax Says M. D.

Literally hundreds of people with aches and pains are seeking "Miracle cures" from the Uranium Health Centers and paying $2 and $3 per hour for the dubious "Cure-all" says Dr. A. Holle, M.D., Commissioner of Health.

One researcher for the state declared "The granite in the State Capital is more radioactive than 16 samples tested. I've taken Geiger counter readings to prove it," adding "With super - sensitive instruments it is possible to get a small twitch of the needle practically anywhere, we are all constantly subject to tiny bombardments of radiation from natural cosmic sources."

Dr. Holle said that since no violation of existing state laws nor any claims of advertised cures have been brought to his attention, "we will just have to depend on the native intelligence of the Texas public to recognize these 'sitting tents' as worthless."

John R. Hays Gives Run-down on Postal Changes, Records

John Hays, program chairman for the week at the regular Rotary Club meeting, spoke at length on the post office department in general this week.

He told club members of many changes that are being made in the keeping of records, the painting of government mail boxes red, white, and blue and several other items which will adhere to changes in the future.

Speaking on the local mail situation he stated that users of the mails are going to have to start putting the correct mailing address on envelopes or the mail will be returned.

He explained that the present addressing method, with the wrong address, or sometimes no street or box address, makes a heavier load for mail carriers.

During the business session Dr. Clifford Swift was appointed as chairman of a committee to work with the Community Center project.

Program chairman at the next meeting will be H. B. Pressley.

Specialist Warns Farmers To Read Seed Tag Labels

Read the label or tag which is attached to every sack of planting seed before making a purchase, advises Associate Extension Agronomist Lee C. Coffey. The information carried on the tag is for the protection of the buyer and must list the content of noxious weeds if any.

With the small grain planting season at hand, the specialist offers tips which may aid in keeping your farm free of weed enemies. Among the weeds often found in small grains are cheat or chess, jointed goatgrass, wild morning glory, field bindweed, curled dock, Johnson grass and wild oats.

Arkansas Visitor Prompt in Payment Of Meter Fine

The promptness of the payment of a parking ticket by an out-of-town driver merited the special notice of city parking meter patrolman Marshall Terry this week.

He related that during the early part of the week he issued a ticket to an automobile with an Arkansas license plate. Later in the week he received the $1.00 fine by mail from the car owner E. W. Atkinson, who had since returned home to Arkansas.

Terry said that $258.70 was collected in the meters this fiscal week with 40 tickets issued and 32 paid, which more or less sets a record for a weeks period.

He cautioned drivers to slow down when driving near the school and not endanger the lives of the children.

Entomologists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service recommended that all cotton stalks be shredded and plowed under just as soon as the cotton harvest is completed. They point out the mical and one of the best for controlling boll weevils and pink bollworms, both of which are now present in great numbers in many areas of the State.

Miss Clare Easley was absent from her duties here at the Herald Friday and Saturday while she was in West Texas to serve as a bridesmaid in the wedding of her cousin Elizabeth Prude. She returned to Cameron from the Davis Mountains late Sunday night.

Conservation Plan On Rotation Basis Gives Better Yield

"Growing hubam clover on a rotation basis for the past 7 years has about doubled the yields on my farm", is the statement made by Mr. Paul Olbrich who owns and operates a blackland farm just east of Burlington.

A member of the Central Texas Soil Conservation District, Olbrich has been growing hubam clover since buying his farm in 1947. The farm was terraced about 25 years ago, by maintaining the structures regularly they continue to function properly.

Olbrich's combination farm has 24 acres of permanent pasture which contains Bermuda grass, ryegrass, and bur clover. With an additional 20 acres of sudan grass for temporary grazing, his livestock do well and the permanent pasture is in good condition.

Crops grown are cotton, corn, maize, small grains, legumes. This year's maize crop averaged livestock do well and the permanent pasture is in good condition.

Crops grown are cotton, corn, maize, small grains, legumes. This year's maize crop averaged 3,000 pounds per acre; some made less, but some made much more. Half of one field of this year's maize was in clover last year. The part that followed the clover this year's maize crop averaged 3,000 pounds per acre; some made less, but some made much more. Half of one field of this year's maize was in clover last year. The part that followed the clover produced twice the amount as did the land that had no legume last year.

Cotton yields have doubled since 1947. One field that averaged 1/4 bale per acre seven years ago is making close to 2-3 bale per acre this year. Another field which made 1/2 bale per acre in 1954 will average 3/4 bale per acre this year.

To again quote Olbrich, "My increased yields are due to hubam clover, winter peas, and superphosphate." Each year he seeds about 25 acres of hubam and oats, about 25 acres to winter peas, and about 5 acres to straight hubam for seed. By harvesting the hubam seed, he gets his seed supply for the next planting and also gets a good income from the extra seed that he sells. "Superphosphate is always applied before seeding the legumes," he said. He leaves all the residues from the clover mixed in well with the top part of the soil, thereby leaving the land in excellent condition to absorb rainfall.

The different commissioners in Milam County are making their equipment available for conservation work where privately owned or operated machinery is not available. Commissioner, Doc Markham has had his machinery on Roy Law's farm this week. Law is cooperating with the Central Texas Soil Conservation District and is working toward a complete conservation program. Early this year he leveled an old terrace system on a field that was too steep for cultivation and seed ed it to K. R. bluestem. This week the terraces on the planned cropland were corrected and converted Democratic national committeeman to replace ousted Wright Morrow.

A nominating committee will make a recommendation on Sept. 21. Its choice will be revealed at a meeting of the State Executive Committee in Fort Worth on Sept. 22.

National chairman Paul M. Butler said that the new member must have voted for Adlai Stevenson in 1952 and be acceptable to Governor Shivers, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, and U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson.

Storm - Warning Net Set

Largest storm - warning net in the world is being installed in 16 Texas cities.

Radar sets, obsolete for military use, were donated by the U. S. Air Force. Procedure for use was developed by the U. S. Weather Bureau, Texas Department of Public Safety and the state division of Civil Defense and Disaster Relief.

Installation sites are Austin, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Victoria, Galveston, Houston, Beaumont, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Midland, San Angelo, and Amarillo. Others may be added soon.

New Veterans Land Plan

responsibility for administration squarely on the shoulders of the land commissioner. Ex - officio members, the governor and attorney general, are charged only with policy - making functions.

Commr. J. Earl Rudder said he was ready to accept the responsibility.

Local advisory committees, blueprint in the 54th Legislature's reform laws, are already being formed. These committees, appointed by commissioners courts, will provide a check on findings of state appraisers.

Land purchasers who are delinquent in their payments, have been notified to pay up or forfeit their land. Many delinquencies involve block deals believed to be of questionable nature.

Rudder indicated the board should be able to start considering loan applications again soon. All the original $100,000,000 was exhausted under the administration of his predecessor, Bascom Giles. Some, however, has been recovered by court action.

In its first year of operation, the Special School Milk Program was responsible for school children drinking well over 400 million additional half pints of milk. This year, as schools open, the possibilities for distributing even more milk through the program seem good.

These two fields consisting of about 125 acres will be seeded to hubam clover this fall. The hubam will be properly fertilized and inoculated to insure the best possible growth. It may be grazed moderately, but the crop will be allowed to mature and will be left on the land as a soil conditioning and soil improving crop.

Hal Hartrick, district supervisor of the Central Texas Soil Conservation District, has completed terraces and approximately two miles of large channel type terraces. The diversion was constructed below a pasture to divert 40 acres of water from a cultivated field. The terraces were constructed below the diversion terrace. All terraces outlet on a Bermuda grass waterway that was sodded last spring. Hartrick used a bull dozer to construct these terraces. He received cost sharing through the ACP program.

Timely Tips

be left to posterity. After mulling the problem at length, with Clifford Thompson stating that if any of the comments were added they should all be included, it was decided to strike all of Kelly's remarks from the books.

Allen Dodson, as a committee of one, was then introduced to the council. He told councilmen the main problem in his vicinity on 18th street is dust. He asked if it would be possible to include the two block stretch, from Fannin to Washington streets, in the paving and guttering program on the assessment basis. Dodson said that if they property owners could pay for the project over a period of years he felt sure that all of the 20 residents along the street would go along with the paving proposal. Councilmen told him they would first get estimates on the jobs already outlined and then give him extensive information on costs and possible plans of payment.

Next a committee of five, representing the 18th street and Jackson street residents registered their complaint against the water which is allowed to stand in front of and on their property following each rain.

E. J. Burkes, Ed Kohutek and Gene Friemel stated that water flows rapidly to their homes and places of business and stops, forming pools until it evaporates, which sometimes takes four or five days. Friemel suggested putting a larger horn under the culvert by the Kohutek home which would allow water to escape in several directions and not make it so apt to pool in just a few unfortunate spots.

The crux of the matter still lay in the fact that "Poor Boy" Price will not allow the city to prepare a small drainage ditch through his property which would allow the water to drain off onto the Batts property where it formerly ran. A street committee and Roy Daskin, city attorney, to look into the problem and see what measures can be taken to get an easement on the Price property for drainage purposes.

Several other street problems were brought before the council, with Weems asking that the street in front of the J. F. Smith property, which was torn up by the city, be replaced and put in good condition since Smith had paid for the paving.

Schiller reported that $947 was $56 from paying of traffic violation tickets during the month of August. He later pointed out that under the present form of government that from the total of $420 received from ticket payments only $56 was the city's portion, with the remainder going to City Marshall Joe Richter, the Mayor and the City Attorney.

It was decided to re - set all of the tomb - stones which were overturned and moved by teenage culprits and to give extra police protection at the football games two special meetings were set for here this season.

At the conclusion of the meeting the council, the first on Wednesday afternoon and the next, to set up the city budget for the year, on Tuesday, Sept. 13.

Chamber Notes

Howe Black, with the Heart O' Texas Fair, who is assisting a committee from the local chamber in making plans for a booth at the fair, reports that all materials for the booth have been ordered and that much progress has been made on the booth.

SOMETIME this Fall a team of fire insurance underwriters will visit Cameron to help reduce fire losses in the business district. It will be left up to each business as to whether or not these men will be permitted to check the building but Directors of the Chamber of Commerce urge cooperation among businessmen. President Bill Burns appointed Jack Prescott and Richard Williams to meet with these men along with representatives from other organizations, to determine the date the team will visit Cameron.

E. A. Perrin, chairman of the Highway & Good Roads Committee stated at the recent Board of Directors' meeting, that cooperation was a little better on securing the right - of - way for highway 77. Perrin also stated that about 40 miles of county road were being winterized at this time and that 190 is also under construction.

Agricultural Exports For July Valued at $265 Million Tops Same Month in 1954

All U. S. agricultural exports for the month of July were valued at about $265 million as contrasted with $213 million for the same month a year earlier.

The 25 percent gain, say John G. McHaney, extension economist, was chiefly due to government export programs which increased shipments of principal grains, tobacco and some fats and oils. Exports of wheat, corn, grain sorghums, soybeans and cottonseed oil improved.

U. S. agricultural exports for the month of July 1955 were 25 percent above those for the same month a year ago. Exports for the last fiscal year were 7 percent higher than for the previous year.

Juergens - Pinkerton Pledge Vows In Candlelight Church Ceremony

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday August 27, at 7 p.m. in the United Evangelical and Reformed Church in Ben Arnold Miss Barbara Ann Juergens became the bride of Hilry David Pinkerton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Henry Juergens of Burlington and the groom is the son of Muncie David Pinkerton and the late Mrs. Pinkerton.

Rev. Robert Kalkbrenner of Cameron performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white gaidolas and greenery, enhanced by four pair of tiered candelabra.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Harold Krieg of Taft, Texas at the organ.

Miss Marie Hearne, soloist of Austin, sang the following selections, "I Love You Truly," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father was dressed in a gown of chantilly lace and tulle length train. The lace bodice, buttoned down the back, was fashioned with a peter pan collar and fitted sleeves forming a yolk at the wrist.

The lace peplum at the waist highlighted a full skirt which lengthened into a flowing train. Her only jewelry was a set of pearl earrings, a gift of the groom.

Her cathedral length veil of illusion edged in chantilly lace, depended from a peralized orange blossom tiara.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations and lily of the valley inset with seed pearls and nylon tulle affixed to a white Bible.

The attendants of the bride were all gowned in identical floor length dresses of emerald green crystal-lette. The collars formed wide shoulder straps which dropped below line.

The long torso effect of the gowns had hip cuffs caught at the back in a large bow which flared into fullness to the floor.

Their headbands were of emerald green net covered in seed pearls.

Acting as maid of honor was Miss Jeanne Krieg, cousin of the bride of Taft, with Miss Ann Simank of Austin, Miss Marlene Ernst, cousin of the bride of Rosebud, Miss Ethelene Moraw of Austin acting as brides maids.

Junior bridesmaid was Carolyn Juergens, cousin of the bride, of Houston.

Francine Juergens, sister of the bride of Rosebud, and Harryette Jobs, cousin of the groom acted as flower girls. They wore floor length dresses of white net with seed pearl headbands and carried small white carnation bouquets.

Muncie David Pinkerton, the groom's father, acted as best man. Groomsmen were Eugene Ernst, cousin of the bride, of Rosebud, Billy Frerichs of Burlington and Edwin Barnard of Gary Air Force Base, San Marcos, Texas.

Junior groomsmen was Thomas Juergens, brother of the bride. Ushers were Charles Boring, cousin of the bride, of Burlington and Lee Hollas, cousin of the bride of Cameron. All were dressed in summer tuxedos with red carnation boutonnières.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the reception hall of the church.

The refreshment table was centered with the bride's bouquet surrounded by the bridesmaids' bouquet with other arrangements throughout the reception room.

The traditional four tiered wedding cake was decorated in green and white frosting and decorations featuring a miniature bride and groom on top and resting on a reflector and white net doliens.

Presiding at the brides book was Miss Jeanne Hefner of Santa Anna, Texas, with Miss Maysell cake and Miss Shirley Luckemeyer of Odem pouring.

Others in the house party were Mrs. Ollie Ernst of Rosebud, Miss Ellie Juergens and Mrs. Raymond Barkemeyer of Burlington and Mrs. Arnold Rummel and Mrs. Leo Hollas of Cameron.

The mother of the bride wore a charcoal grey dress with white hat and gloves, with other black accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The grandmother of the groom wore a grey dress with black and white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

As a going away outfit the bride chose a grey imported cotton suit with mauve pink handbag and gloves with other accessories in black and wearing a corsage from her wedding bouquet.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at 3308 Broadway, Apartment 13, San Antonio, Texas.

The bride is a graduate of Yoe High School in Cameron and Durhams Business College in Austin. For the past year she has been employed as a legal secretary in Austin.

The groom, who graduated from Tarleton State Academy, attended Tarleton State College in Stephenville, Texas and the University of Texas. He is now serving with the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio.

Mr. Michalka gave his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown of chantilly lace over satin was fashioned with a high neckline and Peter Pan collar. Tiny white satin buttons led from the collar to the lace peplum which partly covered the flowing train. Her sleeves were long and came to a point at the wrist. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap of satin.

She carried her maternal grandmother's wedding prayer book topped with mums and satin streamers tied with smaller mums.

Mrs. Billy Allison of Liberty served her sister as matron of honor. She wore a net over blue taffeta V-necked gown with net yoke insertion and a matching net stole. She wore a blue taffeta Juliet cap and carried a colonial bouquet of white mums.

Miss Catherine Marie Michalka of Cameron, cousin of the bride, was attired exactly as the matron of honor and was bridesmaid.

Denise Michalka of Moody, niece of the bride and flower girl, wore a white gown of lace over satin fashioned similar to the other attendants, and a ruffled lace hair. She carried a colonial bouquet of white mums.

Charles Kanz, a cousin of the bride, of Cameron was best man. Ushers were Edmund Boedeker and Joseph Michalka, both of Cameron.

The reception at Simon George Memorial Hall was held immediately following the ceremony.

Five Percent Dip In Egg Production Forecast for Fall

Production from egg laying flocks is expected to dip five percent or more this fall below the same period last year commanding at least seasonal and perhaps higher prices for producers.

"Farmers have raised 19 percent fewer replacement chicks this year," John G. McHaney, extension farm economist, explains. It appears that fall flocks will be six to eight percent smaller than a year ago.

While the number of replacement chicks started over the nation closely parallels farmer's February 1 intentions, in Texas and other South Central states the cut-back has exceeded the expected 15 percent mark.

Poultrymen who bought replac-ment stock during the first four months of 1955 will profit most from the situation because of high egg yields at times when prices are more favorable.

Mrs. Jack Thompson and daughters, Gail and Denise, Mrs. Joe Thompson, and Billy Gene Whitaker were in Rockdale Monday night for the services at Meadowbrook Baptist church.

Red Cross Relief Funds Sent To Disaster Area

Jack Prescott, County Red Cross Thursday morning that approximately $100.00 had been received for the flood relief victims in the northeastern states.

Red Cross chapters over the country have made special efforts for contributions for the families in flood stricken areas, and many communities have generously responded to the call.

Chairman Prescott received a telegram this week that read as follows: Wish to advise you that through generosity of the American people our chapters have today Saturday reported in contributions and pledges gifts to the Red Cross Flood Disaster Fund more than $10,000,000. This assures us of sufficient funds to meet adequately Red Cross requirements in Easter states flood relief operation. You are therefore authorized to inform the people within your chapter jurisdiction in what ever way seems proper to you that with funds available CMA contributed and pledged CMA further contributions are necessary. Chapter leadership in this effort has been outstanding and we are grateful for your support. Please take this opportunity to thank all those who have so willingly contributed to this disaster fund and the chapter and community leadership which has made this magnificent effort possible. Ellsworth Bunker, St. Louis, Mo.

Bloodmobile Gets 52 Pints Blood; Four Donors Recognized

The visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile to Cameron Friday was one of the most successful of the last several visits, according to Richard Moseley, County Blood Chairman.

A total of sixty-two individuals came to give their blood. Of this number, ten were rejected for physical or medical reasons, making a total of fifty-two actual pints of blood received.

Four of the donors, C. J. Suter, F. E. Jackson, W. T. Hanes, and Dean White gave their eighth pint of blood through the Red Cross Bloodmobile, making them charter members of the Gallon Club. Special recognition was given them when they came to donate this time.

There are a number of other Cameron citizens who have also given eight or more pints of blood, but not all of it through the bloodmobile. Special recognition will be given to them for their valuable service to humanity just as soon as an accurate list of their names can be obtained.

Service Man's Wife Loses Bag Near A. Henderson School

Mrs. Helen Rose lost her brown and maroon armstrap bag at 4:45 p.m. Monday on south side of the Ada Henderson school near the Tomasek sandwich shop just across the street from the school.

Mrs. Rose, whose husband, Sgt. Eric Rose is serving with the United States Army in France, said that her bag contained her billfold with $25.00, her social security papers, other valuable papers and the keys to her house. She is offering a reward for the return of her bag. Her address is 606 W. 4th. The finder may bring the bag to her home or leave it at the office of principal W. W. Loughmiller.

Mrs. Rose was at the school to pick up her little girl in the first grade. When she got home after picking up her daughter, she discovered the bag was no longer in the car. She said it must have fallen out of the car when she

SHE KEPT A DIARY OF TELEPHONE CALLS

Mrs. Martha Chance—homemaker, church worker, bowler, and keeper of a telephone diary that revealed an important fact.

Mrs. Chance finds the telephone a young homemaker's best friend

What one service helps the homemaker through busy days more different ways than any other?

Mrs. Martha Chance is sure she knows the answer. Her telephone. Mrs. Chance recently kept a week-long diary of telephone calls made and received in her home. The results surprised her.

Mrs. Chance listed 95 calls during the week. Not only did her calls save time and energy in managing her home, but many were actually the start of a pleasant afternoon or evening out.

In Mrs. Chance's own words, "It's so easy to take your telephone for granted. You just don't realize how much it means to you until you stop and think about it as I have."

Mrs. Chance is right. Telephone service is a busy homemaker's best friend.
